

SEASON TWENTY-ONE SESSION THREE

GOIRGIOS LEAGUE

EARLY SEASON REVIEW TO GET US UP AND RUNNING!

 Jubbly win for everyone's favourite caaan Cranners with an all-round dominant away win to Grim M and perhaps an early season sign as to the trajectory of both these teams. Two power packed sides, both employing diamond formations but El's overall superiority won the day and a single Jewel strike was enough for a precious 3 points, Ian 'tory boy' Cranfield would have enjoyed this one more, had the pervious Che Guevarra management regime not departed for Argentina in mysterious circumstances. Into 4th they go. Needs a dance partner for Kropotkin  I'm sure Craig is pulling his receding hairline out as they get dicked 4-0 at home to Gareth 'he shoots he scores' Ashcroft. Remarkably Tamuda played Zonal but he is one jammy feker as they were 3 up after 20 mins, much to the chagrin of Mr Lawton and a stunned home support. Tbf to Mr Potato head creativity won the day here and on paper they are one of the strongest teams in the division albeit getting older together too. A couple of players have already benefited from Gareth's starch based diet. Terrible start for Craig but they must console themselves with the fact they were the better side here and there is virtually nothing between these two squads  Marvellous Morten may not be as handsome as he once was but his Rebel's side are certainly putting a spring in his step with a more than comfy 2-0 home win against the aging giants Norwegian Reds. Bubba tucked Kuznetsikov in his pocket and a Sorloth chip before the half hour mark was doubled aster 56 mins with a drilled Herge finish and that was that. Could the Rebels be the only serious challenger to the Lord's juggernaut? MJ was delighted with this performance and this is a great start. Worrying times for the Dagmeister as they languish in mid-table. No title this year for this famous club but in Overli we trust and I fancy they will still finish in top 4  The Lords have made a perfect start and although the Giorgios managers might not be the brightest bunch even they can see the writing on the wall. Simon and the Bay came so close last year and it is testament to them that they still remain extremely competitive and on another day could have nicked a draw here. As is so often the case James Cook proves to be the match winner with a trademark clinical finish just before ht and the points were secured for Niel. Mr McAuley can console himself that a couple of players already look in peak condition and a European spot would still constitute a successful campaign. Long way to go  Coco obliterate a dreadful Fc City team 7-2 to move into 3rd and Mr Sutton delighted with his side's start to the season. His managerial credentials are often lampooned but today they got it bang on as their enterprising 3-4-3 just overwhelmed Bo G's team whose weakened defence was thoroughly exposed time and again. Haaland had a field day _ left foot, right food and a diving header to complete the archetypal hat trick. Coco won't finish third, that I'm sure of but their enterprising outlook will secure a lot of points. Fc should be in full rebuild mode and are a sprightly squad which can't be said of many teams in this division  Last but not least and probably the best game this week saw Express and the Crew give it dixie in a 5 goal thriller. Kev gets the precious win much to the annoyance of Rob, which always gives everyone a laugh and his apocalyptic response to losing a 2 goal lead was a joy to behold. Only joking champ but youse chucked this one away and Star record their first win. Kev's mighty midfield overcame some industrious marking by Star to get their season up and running and another team who have had some star dust sprinkled over their squad. The Crew in the big scheme of things are better than a lot of their contemporaries so I expect them to put this result quickly behind them and rise up the table **

Just heard on the grapevine that Grim have a new manager. As long as it's not Seamy Mccrudden they'll do ok ? Welcome Shampbap to a very competitive division!

 Highland embarrass the Titans on their own patch drubbing them 8-0. Dave H has went into full rebuild mode for Owlerton and he has a sterling track record of turning teams around in double quick time. His evil doppelganger was in the opposition dug-out and although their resemblance was uncanny, no mercy was shown as the Rovers toyed with their opponents. Just as well that 3rd youngster wasn't given a run-out for Highland otherwise Godly Dave H would have fell out with evil Dave H. Reminds me of that Superman film  Tremendous result for Torliev with a fantastic 4-2 away win to Mallorean which perfectly illustrates why having the better custodian between the sticks can be the difference. Imo Chris got everything right here and was bewildered to see his side concede four on their own patch, especially after their tactical marking worked so well. Like death and taxes Kvh bit into every tackle and alongside their creativity were always in the contest, albeit playing on the counter attack and conceding possession. Was hoof ball from the foxes but it can be very effective. Utd conceded a league position to Kvh but they'll have better days and their p/s blend will grow into the season, and another team who have 2 stars in 3 sessions. Not a bad platform to build from  Jeepers this 0-0 draw did not raise Thommo from his slumber as Cook missed a massive chance to maintain their 100% start with a disappointing result at home to everyone's 2nd favourite antipodean Lorenzo Symonds. They huffed and they puffed but could not blow the house down as Kirabati and Holberg, despite their complete averageness held on for an unlikely point. Cook are a serious side but their power packed performances lack that ooh-la-la which a wg-fwt combo could compensate for. They will finish top 3 easily. Malin are taking this result every day of the week but some work for the Rovers to do, otherwise a mediocre year is imminent. Could do with investing in the youth academy  Bertie Bassett and Stratford have not shied away from the hype, instead embracing it, and 12 points from 12 suggest the pre-season favourites could well lead from the front and not be caught. This was never a 4 nil result to the away side as Kev watched in despair. Newark matched their much trumpeted opponents, only to concede every time City crossed the half way line. I actually think Neil played for a 0-0 here but Newark harmonised them in their negativity and ultimately this was their undoing. Is this why Kev, no-one is coming through the gate? Onwards and upwards for both sides. At least Kev has some money to consider a purchase which may enhance their prospects. City are all in and the top division beckons  Not a free flowing session in this division compounded by another 0-0 between Cudmon and the battling Fc Pozan, which definitely suits the away side much more. Rovers will win this one 4 times out of 5 but credit to Poznan who battled hard, marked astutely and dug in for a hard-earned point. Both teams aren't floating my boat right now but if Paul S gets his finger out then Rovers should look to aim higher, but of course he won't be able to stay away from the auction and be 3 billion overdrawn. Paul H will always make his team incredibly difficult to beat as he cannot fathom another relegation season. Might be time to spend some cash imo  Exchequer are a team in flux right now (or so you would presume) after a couple of turbulent years but young incumbent Jack Smith has big plans and there is every reason to be positive after swatting aside Hoth 2-0 away. Worryingly for Ready there was a huge chasm between these two teams and anything above 10th would be a result. Outside the top two Exchequer look very solid, so Hoth should not necessarily use this as a barometer. Fjord will get better in goal but he needs to quick, otherwise the goals will continue to go in the wrong end. Conversely not many team will get the better of Exchequer **

 A reality check for Baker's as they are humped at home by a very decent looking Pele who coped rather easily against the attacking and rather predictable positive approach from Postman Pat. Stewart plundered 4 goals as their overall skill proved to be far too strong, and they should be there or thereabouts at the business end. Tbf be Cranners the Magic are definitely showing signs of improvement and will get better as the season progresses. Let's just say they have a few quid tucked away _ miserable feker still won't buy a drink at a weekend  Grace and Spirit fight out a lively enough 0-0 derby draw that probably will suit both teams, if not their frustrated fans. Spirit have went to complete turd under the stewardship of the not so mighty dumpster, whereas Paul H and the Academy seem to be in perennial rebuild mode. Both teams have some money so a timely addition to their respective ranks could make all the difference  NYC and San put on a bore fest and I'm sure Mr Arty Farty will be the happier of the two coaches. Very little in the way of goal mouth action here but Mr Stevens will cut a frustrated figure not to pick up the victory. In terms of squad strength you would be very hard pushed to find a stronger team in the division and they should really be winning games like this. San will finish mid-table I think and another team that would see fortunes improve with some fresh blood _ some money to spend here  Does and Red Star sees another fixture result in a draw _ 3 this week in total _ and this was a fair result. The one thing that jumps out at you is the difference in morale, one team has a shoddy kit and bad haircuts, and the other pearly white teeth and manicures. What the hell are you paying those guys Vic? The trumpy Danes need to pay their players more but still remain one the favourites for promotion  Boom! Ramsgate hit Rock for 6 and will win the division this year, of that I'm sure. A swashbuckling attacking display was dynamic from the get-go and it really could have been worse for Rich, especially with such a young custodian between the sticks. With Pad adding to his already impressive midfield this week they can already begin planning for life in the 2nd division. Rock aren't miles behind in overall squad strength but definitely half-assed this one. Plenty of cash to do some damage here. Spend man, spend  Oooh you naughty minx as little Bo Peep do the archetypal smash and grab with a sick 1-0 away win at Dennis' Backstreet Boys, who were bewildered as to how they lost this one. Hermasen in the home goal was simply not up to it, in contrast to Biden who is at the top of his profession. Trump got the winner right before half-time which was the Heights' first foray into opposition territory. Great result for them but just a blip for Utd who will surely comeback from the minor set-back. The third division looks mighty interesting **

up for the cup

 Golan and Grace fight out a tension filled 1-1 and this was absolutely the correct result. Both Paul and Bo knew the importance of this cup fixture and set up accordingly; not to lose. Someone is going to have to take a chance here otherwise the dreaded penalties looms. I don't think any of the two lads have fingernails left!  An excellent victory for the Magic who knew to utilise the home advantage to full effect by attacking from the outset. Rich could see this coming but did not have players to counter and unfortunately for them, Rock limp out at the first hurdle. Ian is definitely improving his Baker's side  Pele and NYC will have to go again after a cracking derby cup tie which ended 1-1. All to play for here and I think the replay will be a smasher. Rovers shaded the ball but Paul S and his side can always create something from nothing. Could be 2-1 to either side is my prediction  Spirit miss a great opportunity to dispose of San at the first time of asking. Pauly B delighted with the 0-0 and must now really fancy of chances of progressing in the replay **

LEAGUE CUPPING

 Rock get their first win against a youthful Owlerton. Both these teams won't be troubling the judge but Rich is loving the SP  Coco thump rivals Dore 4-1 to keep their hopes very much alive. Creativity up the wazoo here and Sutton enjoys handing out a can of whoop ass to the brothers grim  Tremendous point and indeed session for Kev as the Express strangle the life out of the Rebels to grab a vital away draw and on another day would have nicked the win. Vice like grip on the group now  Ramsgate are held by a very strong Cranfield which ensures this group is going to the wire with many variables. A stonker of a 0-0 with both goalies in superb form  Den batter Mallorean 6 zip with a devastating attacking display to remain very much in the hunt. Chris M knew the writing was on the wall and is treating the tourney to give some youngsters some vital match experience  The Lords aren't done yet in this group of death as they sweep aside Golan 4-0. I'll let Chris do the maths for this group  Why the friar tuck Rob and his crew played zonal away at Highland is beyond me and it certainly cost them the win and control of the group. Dave H should be delighted with this draw as their league cup campaign continues  Kvh get their first win by demolishing winless 6-2 NYC on their own patch. Still, a win is a win  Backstairs record back to back wins by scundering Hoth 9-0 and retain a glimmer of hope in progressing. All to play for here  Cook paste the Bakers 3-0 in a top of the table clash. Vastly superior in every department - Mr Thompson's charges must be favourites to top the group  Red Star and Belfast are stalemated @ 0-0 which does nothing for either team's campaign. Just going through the motions now  Stratford are not giving up without a fight and overcame a very resilient Poznan 1-0. Astute marking by Paul H very nearly got the draw  Exchequer produce a scintillating display to easily beat Dag's reds 2-0. Probably a little too late but really underlines what a strong squad they have this season. Really puts the cat amongst the pigeons in this group  Tamuda wallop Grace 5-0 away to seize top spot and could be hitting their stride just at the right time  Cudmon stumble at home to the 79ers to drop points at a vital time but still time to rectify this result. Impossible to predict the final standings in this group  Newark stick 4 past a disinterested Desperados to still retain an interest in progression. Another group going the last series of games methinks  A massive result for Pele who clinch a vital 2-2 draw away to Grima. Really in their hands now. Can they handle the pressure?  Malin sneak past Fc City 1-0 which really could put the kybosh on Bo G's chances. Looks likely both teams will fall short **

Blurb here

 Mallorean get the gk they were craving  Dag grabs the very fast rising sw and will hope to integrate him asap  Golan will be chuffed at picking up the sby df for a very reasonable price indeed  Ramsgate splurge on the young midfield general which could be the defining moment of their season. Just realised he's a fut too!  Cook are the only bidders for the fwd but who gives a rat's potuty. Cheap at half the price  Bay takes no prisoners in acquiring Boniek. The value is all relative and could yet prove to be an astute purchase **

MANAGER OF THE MONTH

DIVISION ONE: goes to manager Kev and Star Express. An all-round spiffing session proving they can mix it with the best.

DIVISION TWO: goes to manager Torleiv and Kvh Foxes. Two wins in his best session for a while. Lend us a fiver mate.

DIVISION THREE: goes to manager Oren and Pele Rovers. 7-up in the league and a vital draw in the league cup. Fancy them in the cup replay too.

ROLLER LEVELS

The following are the minimum levels relating to each session for entering players into the rolling auction:-

SESSIONS	MIN LEVEL
1 to 3	5
4 to 5	6
6 to 8	7
9 to 10	8
11+	9

These are also the same levels which decide whether a player will go straight to N/L when out of contract rather than being put into the auction

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY TO REMEMBER

It seems that even old stagers of the game still can't work out what order games are to be played in. SO emblazon the following on your minds please

ORDER OF MATCHES IS

LEAGUE GAME ONE

LEAGUE GAME TWO (which is where any re-arranged league matches should go)

ALL CUP GAMES (including Cup/Bowl/ Trophy where the latter is always last if you have a Bowl or cup game as well)

LEAGUE CUP GAMES

EURO GAMES

FRIENDLIES

(If you look at teampick you will see that you CAN edit your fixtures as well to tell the program what games you are playing this session and it will put them in the correct order, OK)

Oh dear Jensie, not quite the start to your campaign to win everything in sight was it!!

Clash of the titans see FC City come home with a very good point at Seaside .

group two looks ever so tight with those away draws. Down to the wire mehtinks.

Shock for Craigins as Salvation get a right lamblasting at Belfast despite dominating possession.

Milan off to a good un, as the Martin announces his teams are certainly back

Wamphyri sound out a wanting as they see off the Club.

The sharp-shooters of Upton Park see off a Montreal side whose season has been all over the place so far

Unfortunately the game file for the cup-winners cup got corrupted and wouldn't load so we had to play the last two games by hand. Both ended in goalless draws, setting them up for the second legs nicely. Sps have been updated for this

FORTHCOMING KA WEEKENDS

Glasgow 2024

This will be held at 140 Renfrew Street G3 6RF

This is being held May 16-19th.

Again a few will stay and host it in an Airbnb while others can plan their own accommodation nearby. Craig always lines up great evenings with curry (Haggis Pakora's all round) and other foods whilst we frequent a few bars in the evenings - you are welcome to take it or leave it - food and beers are not compulsory. It looks like being a well-attended event here with 16 already giving an early nod including , Jens. Geraldo , Seamus, Chrispy Bally, Cranners, Wadders, Colly, Gareth ,Rob Lewis, Bo, Morten, Fingers, Niel Humpy, Doug Gunning & probs Adie

First man definitely in is Craigins

Galway 2024

This one will take place Oct 10-13th. Again this is held in Seamus's fantastic Seafront Seafood Bar & Restaurant with Bed and Breakfast for those that stay and local hotels nearby for others. Grab as much sightseeing as you can squeeze in (Salthill and Galway not far), however the food here is superb (Chowder, Mussels and Oysters on the menu), so are the staff and you really don't need to leave the place other than to go to bed if you don't want to. Despite it being a year away, we've nearly got close to a dozen coming along already.

Geraldo, Jens, Morten, Seamus, Craigins, Timmy Dodge, Cranners Wadders, Colly, Gareth, Rob Lewis, Steadders, Danny B, Baddad & Fingers say they are coming

First men in are Seamus & Dennis

Spring 2025 Back To Norwich

Autumn 2025 perhaps a London one could be arranged

Those playing Kickabout now have done so for a long time, so it would be really nice to see

BULK PAYMENT OF TURN FEES -

remember if you pay £59.50 at one time (which can cover more than one team) you get an extra free turn credited to your account. This offer does not include shomatch/weekend or special offers monies!

Norwich 2023

By KA social secretary Cranners

So the Kickabout Weekend returned to Norwich in October 23. I've lost count of how many weekends have been held here now, but they are always great fun in a very nice City with loads to do. This time it was held in a 4-bed Airbnb, West of the Centre, with me (Cranners), Seamus (Phat Phoot), BadDad Barrett and the returning Waddinghamham being the permanent residents at the house. An Airbnb always provides a much more relaxed environment where we can all talk KA until we are blue in the face and not receive strange looks from others!! Chris ran it from the dining room and Wadders was either permanently at his corner bar area in the kitchen or face up to the large TV checking on how many goals he was conceding! Friday night we were joined by Jens and Gerard and then onto curry at The Spice Lounge was tea, after a few beers in a bar I cannot remember the name of. Food was superb, Gerard generous to a fault. After Fridays KA, where others joined virtually (KP, Fingers, Colly & Dag etc) and Matron, Tommo and Chris Moore had arrived, it was off to an Italian, again a superb evening with beers pre and post food. Mr Pickup (aka Los Pollos) rolled in for Saturday morning events before the evening took us back to the old Coach and Horses where we have basically lived at previous weekends, for pub grub and rugby. Another fantastic weekend of laughs with like-minded

MUTTERINGS AND MEANDERINGS OF THE KA MIND

Super Tommo tells me that in order to accommodate the last teampick update he had to change something (nobody told me). This means that in future if you attempt to discover a player with exactly the same name as one already in the squad you will instead be given a non-league player along with the accompanying costs. So be careful cos there is no refund

PLEASE NOTE THAT UNLESS YOU SUBSCRIBE TO TEAMPICK/SHOMATCH THEN YOUR TEAMSHEETS WILL ALWAYS BE SENT OUT BY POST. EMAIL TURNS ARE ONLY SENT TO TEAMPICK/ SHOMATCH SUBSCRIBERS

MARKING INFO - Tim Dodge has put together a clever little program that allows shomatch subscribers to gather all the international squads together each session so that you can use that info to get marking info. Shomatch/ teampick subscribers get a file sent out a file with all the int squads listed and this program pulls them all together. Makes it easier than ploughing through back newsletters, etc.

SOCIAL MEDIA

We have finally been dragged kicking and screaming into the 21st Century , pity all dinsoars aren't like that and have upped our presence on social media sites. Links to our pages will soon appear on the web-site, but in the meantime we can be foudn on

THE KICKABOUT COMMUNITY

EMAIL CHAT LIST - yes, you can subscribe to our email discussion group. There is a list for general Kickabout topics, a list for each individual league, one for the vulcano, one for teampick subscribers, even one for the weekend players. Learn more about the game, talk to other players and the Gm. To subscribe to the main list send a blank email to KA-kickabout+subscribe@groups.io. For others you do the same except put the league, name with Ka- infront of +subscribe.

One thing to note about subscribing to the list, we post a regular schedule of where every league is in the processing schedule, when it is sent out, when the latest return-by-date is. This is of great help and if you have email you should really be receiving this.

MARKING UPDATE

We have worked out a system to check on anybody who is using last season's marking numbers for the current season. Basically the program will save a list of all valid marking successes each session and if somebody cries foul, that he has been marked by somebody who hasn't scouted him, we can check and say yea or nay.

So from now onwards if you use last season's numbers then you will be found out AND if guilty the result of the game will either be reversed or

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS Can be made to us using the PAYPAL service. So if you want to pay anything by credit card then you could register with them and give it a try. Also note that if you send your payments as a gift ALL of the cash reaches us without any paypal fees being charged at our end and all is credited to your account. You can use either email address for this

You can pay by card/paypal through our new web-site

kickaboutonline.co.uk

STANDING ORDER PAYMENTS - you can also pay your turn fees by standing order now. Contact us for details about how to do this and remember that this is not only the way to spread your payments over the year rather than having to find a lump sum at the start of every season, but it is also the way to avoid those dreaded double turn fees. With SO payments this can't happen.

MANAGERS NEEDED

A new year and a new super dooper offer for you to takeover a new team and guide it to success. Feeling generous so for a short period you can takeover a new team AND get £100 of free credit plus a £20 credit to any one of your other teams. How ▪ First team on offer are LADY PARK in the Messi (Fast turnaround league) . Currently mid-tablet in the league and all to play for. £100 credit basically pays for your turns for the next two seasons.

▪ Or you could have a looksee at CASTLE DULOC in the Clough league . Mid-divison three team with seven million in the bank to spend. Could be something to build upon here

Or even a real challenge side. FC Skangers. , rock bottom of the fourth in the Livingstone league. Very little going for them and will need some acumen for sure. AT least they have six million in the bank to cushion the blow. All you who love a challenge get in there

Or get a big kiss form John by taking on rock bottom Desert Isle Utd in the Veterans, just about to start another season here

CONTRACTS UPDATE

We have listened to the moaners who in contract negotiations have lost very good players cos they cannot get them to agree to a new contract. Galling to see their prized possession in the expired section of the autumn. Ok you will no doubt get some recompense for him, but the reserve bid is always painfully low and you never never know who might snaffle his arse with a cheeky bid do you.

So from now onwards if your prized player is on the last week of his contract

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

Then there is a wage that if offered he will ALWAYS accept.

This has to be calculated by you (Oh shite!!)

The formula is as follows :

3 X basic wage where the basic wage = player level X PS Bonus X Div Bonus X POS Bonus X Type bonus

player level is obvious

P/S bonus increase the basic wage by 20%

Div Bonus - 125% for div 1/ 110% for div2 / 100% for divs 3/ 75% for div 4

Pos bonus refers to STARS/FUT/SBY which require 50% uplift

Type bonus is equal to the players expected wage rates , ie MF/A/D x3 - Df/A X 2 / UT/WG/FWS x1.5 / GK SW X 2/ FW/MF/DF X 1

We suggest that you always add 1K to your bids

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

as an example a DIV ONE 20/12 PS MF/A/D STAR would require a wage offer of basic wage (81K) X 3 to accept unconditionally , i.e. 243K per week or a 20-10 DIV THREE S DF/A would require a wage offer of basic wage(20K) X 3, i.e. 60K

On the last week of the contract there is no optimum length of contract though we suggest you opt for four weeks so you have time to bid again

I REPEAT - AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

One last change to note as well. In future at whatever stage of the contract negotiation you are at with a player, the min he will now accept is one third of his basic wage
