

NATO TO NOWT?

It seems to be a given now that you need significant resources behind you in football to win anything. Look at Pep at City, Jose at Chelsea, Ade at NATO. Having the full power of much of the western world behind you certainly appears to have it advantages, but what happens when that power isn't there anymore? Well, there's a wobble and I don't mean the type you see when this journo walks in front of you. Xanadu have gone from sitting pretty, to, well, potentially dropping from the sky Dr Strangelove style. It all started last week when Severanyin decided it was time to have a break for a few weeks, aided, well by a break caused by a nasty Thommo infused Amec tackle.

Onto this week and despite a reasonable outfield performance, Ade was powerless to stop a resurgent Janiero tearing into his backline. Perhaps a surprising result, but you couldn't fault Xanadu in week 2 against a strong Toolbox who may regret not being more attacking. A superb 1-0 nil win for the league leaders, putting a smile back on the face of the highland Gruffalo, whose defiance moved into the post match press conference where yours truly was able to ask about the impact of leaving NATO on Xanadu's chances, leading to a good straight bat reply, 'Och aye the noo. Girders. I've always believed that defence is everything. Finally, Xanadu has learned the importance of being able to shoot, ye ken. It was only when pushed on what would constitute a successful season for Xanadu that the stare turns icy, the tone a flashback to Ivan Drago's 'if he dies he dies'. Simply, 'winning the league'. Chilling. The calmness returned when answering 'whiskey, of course' when asked if he preferred lager or bitter.

Elsewhere, points for all the teams at the bottom albeit Jaffa and Janiero will think they could have got more overall from the session.

Big shout too to Bilbo Daggins who wore the ring well to sneak unseen into the hot seat at Polski unannounced, especially to Craig at Tartan. Strong session in league and cup for Dag who genuinely is Kingmaker in this league, with Southland to play twice and Xanadu. Or, will Dag potentially be King? Don't rule it out.

WE NEED TO TALK ABOUT GESSLE

We most certainly do and not just about their league form but for their managers views towards butter. Think I'll have dry toast if I ever visit Read Towers.

Gessle have snuck into top spot quieter than Nob Lewis sneaking into first place in the ratings at a weekend. Talk about silent but deadly, Dag will be recruiting him to join 'the firm' soon.. Gessle have chipped away and whilst others around them have started to drop points, they picked up 6 this session with double header wins against Norwich Bhoys who are already looking ahead to the 3rd division. No wonder then that we looked to sneak an interview in, having to settle for encrypted communications due to Manager Read being on 'holiday' in Lanzarotte.

You're up there this season and really challenging. Will you get it? Yes I expect the top 3, did not at the start of the season but want to now stay up there.

What does a successful season look like for Gessle? Success this season was to finish 5th and get the side younger. Going up is a season or two too early but I will take it and go from there.

Lager or butter and why? Butter, I find it better on my toast and is a much better lubricant.....(unfortunately my work experience boy, a young lad called Seamus, who is trying to learn to write at the same time as pick up tips for his school magazine called the Churchill, misspelt bitter. But Ian doesn't drink so maybe we learned something new!

Elsewhere a range of interesting results means Custom Car City are looking up not down, whilst Wadders is certainly looking down on Kev and Cranners, no change there then. Arsenal should be safe though, whilst Godzilla v King Kong aka Cranners v Kev looks like it will go to the wire.

At the top there's a gaggle of hungry mouths trying to feed on Gessle scraps and it could be anyone of 6 who get promotion. Exciting.

COLLY PROVES SIZE DOESN'T MATTER

If you'd have asked me before this session do Clifton Legends have a chance of getting promoted, I'd have said they have as much chance as Cliftonville beating Larne in the cup or Brondby beating Copenhagen away with a last minute winner, or a Paul Stevens team not being in debt; and, well it seems miracles do happen.

Two very good draws away at Bel and Doonhammers send out a clear warning to the rest of the division. Yes, we're going to bore you into submission. No shots. No excitement. But we're going to get valuable points that keep us in touching distance. Trick will be can they turn the 0-0 into wins against the poorer sides in the division. We shall see. A mixed bag of results elsewhere including a surprisingly positive session for Topside and Clifton Classic getting a v positive derby win.

Another close division where anything could happen at either end.

YOU REALLY DON'T WANT TO BE PLAYING THESE NEXT SEASON

Division 3 should be afraid next season. There's a train a comin' toot toot all the way to division 2 at least. Never mind the Orient Express this is the SamsonHailsBard bullet train, kitted out with all the mod cons of specialists, creativity and levels backed up with great train drivers.

We grasped the opportunity to board the Enborne train this week and sit down with their conductor and drive Bard The Moller?

You're flying this season and taking all before you. What does a good season look like for Enborne? Enborne has improved much these last two seasons. I'm very happy with the progress. In any other 4th division I would expect us to be leading the way. But the other teams are just really well run, I think the division as a whole could be better than even the 2nd div. That said, we do need a promotion this year.

How soon are you wanting to get to division one and what if anything can stop you? We are packing our bags for a non-stop journey. But what I do fear is that our squad will be predictive after a while, and just stops evolving. We need to continue attracting new players, do some experiments and not get too afraid of changes.

Lager or bitter and why? Not easy to get a decent bitter in Norway so if I had the opportunity I'd choose that!

Stop the press! Not 1, but 2 world exclusives to bring to you lucky people. We caught up with the latest addition to the Montgomery league, a new fresh faced manager called Neil Barrett.

You specifically picked Stamford Park when you could have had any unmanaged team, including Eastwood Forest in the Disraeli, what made you pick Stamford? Eastwood Forest are yesterdays news. Stamford have a much brighter future.

What's your goal for Stamford this season? This season and next will be spent building a creative attacking juggernaut.

Lager or bitter and why? Neither Jack Daniel's for me.

UP FOR THE CUP

REPLAY HIGHLIGHTS

After a close set of games first time round there were a couple of tight replays to finish off this session. First up Stalingrad and Xanadu and the first division leaders again struggled against an up for it Stalingrad. Constance grabbing a hat trick and the second division team putting themselves in with a chance of silverware. In the other replay City Blues put Belfast Celtic to the sword, the promotion chasing division two side not able to cope with the Blues attack and its all on promotion now for Seamy's men. In the final game, Southland continued their fruitful session against a dogged and somewhat unlucky Central Select, a soft penalty giving the first division side the win.

BOWLING ALONG

REPLAY HIGHLIGHTS

Not many times you see all 4 games going to a replay but we did last session. Amec v Khali was tight tight tight but the first division side sneaked through. London finally get some cheer, although Manager Lewis was insistent that he'd have preferred to win his bowl derby game and wanted this journo to publish his belief that London keep putting him in hospital. Well hopefully this result will help him come out of hospital pronto. Get well soon mate. Lima steamroll Trachloe, boom boom boom. Great result for Hopkins away at Jaffa whose season is starting to stall badly.

LEAGUE CUP SEMI-FINALS

POLSKI NOT TERRORISED

FC POLSKI 2-0 TARTAN TERRORS

Dag certainly isn't going to be on Craig's Xmas card list after this session. Dag was one step ahead of Craig in this one and Tartan didn't really offer a great deal. Polski's marking was spot on and although they didn't have bags of chances themselves, they had enough. Two good teams here and well done to Dag, what an impact.

SOUTHLAND DON'T NEED ANY AIDING

XANADU 0-5 SOUTHLAND

Ade will be pleased to see the back of this session and ultimately it's the league that's the main aim. Southland bided their time and their marking undoubtedly helped. Southland have had a good session that's for sure.

AUCTION HIGHLIGHTS

If Carlsberg did kickabout sessions it very possibly could be FC Polski's session. Gave Craig an ulcer, didn't lose a game and now pick up a brand new specialist ready for next season. Good buys especially too for PSV Gessle, Janiero and Lima.

MANAGER OF THE MONTH

DIVISION ONE: goes to manager OVERLI of FC Polski, great session

DIVISION TWO: goes to manager ASHCROFT of Stalingrad, 4 good points and into the league cup semi.

DIVISION THREE: goes to manager ARMSTRONG of Cilfton, yes it was two draws but they were two good draws.

DIVISION FOUR: goes to manager SAMSON of Lima, 3 good wins.

ROLLING AUCTION LEVELS

The following are the minimum levels relating to each session for entering players into the rolling auction:-

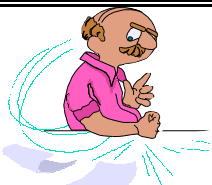

SESSIONS	MIN LEVEL
1 to 3	5
4 to 5	6
6 to 8	7
9 to 10	8
11+	9

These are also the same levels which decide whether a player will go straight to N/L when out of contract rather than being put into the auction

Please note that from now onwards it is illegal to sell any player and then buy him back in the next three session FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER. If you do that player will be banned for life and you will lose him

MARKING

From now onwards if you use last season's marking numbers then you will be found out AND if guilty the result of the game will either be reversed or decided against you.

MARKING INFO - Tim Dodge has put together a clever little program that allows shomatch subscribers to gather all the international squads together each session so that you can use that info to get marking info. Shomatch/ teampick subscribers get a file sent out a file with all the int squads listed and this program pulls them all together. Makes it easier than ploughing through back newsletters, etc

For others you do the same except put the league, name with Ka- in front of +subscribe.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY TO REMEMBER

It seems that even old stagers of the game still can't work out what order games are to be played in. SO emblazon the following on your minds please

ORDER OF MATCHES IS

LEAGUE GAME ONE

LEAGUE GAME TWO (which is where any re-arranged league maxcth should go)

ALL CUP GAMES (including Cup/Bowl/ Trophy where the latter is always last if you have a Bowl or cup game as well)

LEAGUE CUP GAMES

EURO GAMES

FRIENDLIES

(If you look at teampick you will see that you CAN edit your fixtures as well to tell the program what games you are playing this session and it will put them in the correct order, OK)

NB In teampick trophy games come after League Cup it appears. Please realise that they don't. In the fullness of time the teampick maestro will change this

MUTTERINGS AND MEANDERINGS OF THE KA MIND

Just something to remember this time. Which is oft times not realised by managers. If you set a DF/A to mark a WG then he will follow him all over the pitch whether he plays in MF or FW line and mark him. WG cannot hide from a DF/A marking him

MONEY

STANDING ORDER PAYMENTS - you can also pay your turn fees by standing order now. Contact us for details about how to do this and remember that this is not only the way to spread your payments over the year rather than having to find a lump sum at the start of every season, but it is also the way to avoid those dreaded double turn fees. With SO payments this can't happen.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS Can be made to us using the PAYPAL service. So if you want to pay anything by credit card then you could register with them and give it a try. Also note that if you send your payments as a gift ALL of the cash reaches us without any paypal fees being charged at our end and all is credited to your account. You can use either email address for this

BULK PAYMENT OF TURN FEES - remember if you pay £63.75 at one time (which can cover more than one team) you get an extra free turn credited to your account. This offer does not include shomatch/weekend/fast leagues/veterans leagues or special offers monies!

KICKABOUT INTS

THE INTERNATIONAL TROPHY

There will be two groups of six teams each playing the other once (remember an extra point for an away performance), There will then be a KO semi-final, for all positions and a final session of six games to decided the twelve placings

First the prizes,

WINNER - 500K

RUNNER-UP - 200K

BEATEN SEMI-FINALISTS - 150K each

Beating any HIGHER RANKED team earns your club balance 100K

Winning any game (though not on penalties) gains you an extra 1 MP for your club side

The international scene can be therefore quite lucrative for your club side and with the arrival of your free SUPER SCOUT on Session two this becomes even more lucrative as well. However remember that if you fail to put in any orders he will DISSAPPEAR and you can only get him back by submitting a set of orders next time, and asking fro him back, when he will re-appear at the end of that session you submitted the orders.

FIXTURE SCHEDULE

S2 - A v B / C v D / E v F

S3 - B v C / D v E / F v A

S4 - C v F / E v A / B v D

S6 - D v F / A v C / B v E

S8 - A v D / F v B / C v E

S10 - PLAY-OFFS ALL TWELVE TEAMS

S12 - FINAL GAMES ALL TWLEVE TEAMS

PLEASE NOTE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

There is a reporting error in international squad turnsheets that CAN occur at times on s2/3/54 of international games. There is very little way around this to be honest. So if it appears that the wrong player has played or marked please bear this in mind. We are happy in these circumstance to end you a printout of what actually happened not what the printout program says happened!!

LONDON BEER MILE - SATURDAY 6th JULY

Boys, we have arranged that Saturday July 6th will be a London Beermile Day for Kickabouters. We will traverse the 'famous' London Beermile (not far London Bridge station). Put it in your diaries for an afternoon of ales, food and chat. We would love to see old and new faces. Ex players Ian Jackson (aka Mick Hucknall) and Nigel Barnish (Trespint Barnie) are already confirmed as coming along and there are one or two more ex-players in the pipeline (watch this space); along with the current crop of Chris, Wadders, Baddad, Cranners, Gareth, Nursey Lewis, Steadders to name just a few as a starter.

We also here that Neil H & Collywobble are planning to descend on London for a binge! While Rob The Scottie has promised to show his face (What about you Mr Butler!?!)

CREATIVE/ BALL-WINNER

HOW DOES IT WORK?

SO WHAT DO THE NUMBERS MEAN?

The new statistics are aimed at a simple game mechanic - they are used to give a side additional chances of scoring during a game or they are used to nullify efforts created by the opposition; it doesn't take a genius to work out which does which.

The individual statistics of each player are only the "base value" for each formulae that uses them. The figures shown are modified by any number of different conditions before they are given a final rating, which is used to determine if he directly effects the match in any way. The kind of players he is playing with, the number of players in his part of the pitch, the weather and the team's formation are all mitigating factors in how this base value is modified.

Ball Winners are players that thrive in the heat of battle, that love to mix it with the opposition and find their talents easier to use when in packed areas of the pitch. They are primarily defensive players and tend to have more effect if the overall stance of the side is weighted in that direction. For each element of this make up that goes their way, they receive a bonus on their ball-winning ability, along with a subsequent penalty to their creative skill. So, if the Batty of our example starts the game with figures of 75/25 then he will be completely happy playing in a full Power side, with a 4-4-2 formation that uses a negative style. If the weather is cold and the pitch muddy then he has about everything he can get in his favour. The only way of bettering this if for him to be playing in a five-man midfield, but then you lose the negative advantage and his figures won't look all that much better. Each one of the factors in his advantage will add a certain percentage to his abilities and in the example shown it would not be a surprise to see Batty's eventual stats change from 75/25 through to perhaps 105/10 or so.

Creative players like the opposite end of the scale, as you can imagine, and they like warm days with a good surface to play on, they like space to play in and a style that allows them to attack the opposing goalmouth. It doesn't take too much to work out what sort of formations and playing positions will get the best from them.

It may well become apparently that there are more opportunities in the game for ball winners than there are for creative players - this is a fact.

The balance to this is that when a BW or CR affect kicks in, it only kicks in at the position the player is located. A BW gain by a player in midfield will kill off a shot from the opposing midfield area for example, while a striker picking up a creative chance will do so from his forward position. The creative chances always result in an additional chance where as ball-winners need to have something to stop if they are to be effective. If a side adds an extra four Ball-winner stops to their midfield and the opposition isn't creating anything in that area, then these efforts are wasted. Thus, while there are many more ways of aiding your ball-winning players, their abilities are not always as valuable as the creative players

CONTRACTS UPDATE

We have listened to the moaners who in contract negotiations have lost very good players cos they cannot get them to agree to a new contract. Galling to see their prized possession in the expired section of the autumn. Ok you will no doubt get some recompense for him, but the reserve bid is always painfully low and you never never know who might snaffle his arse with a cheeky bid do you.

So from now onwards if your prized player is on the last week of his contract

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

Then there is a wage that if offered he will ALWAYS accept.

This has to be calculated by you (Oh shite!!)

The formula is as follows :

3 X basic wage where the basic wage = player level X PS Bonus X Div Bonus X POS Bonus X Type bonus player level is obvious

P/S bonus increase the basic wage by 20%

Div Bonus - 125% for div 1/ 110% for div2 / 100% for divs 3/ 75% for div 4

Pos bonus refers to STARS/FUT/SBY which require 50% uplift

Type bonus is equal to the players expected wage rates , ie MF/A/D x3 - DF/A X 2 / UT/WG/FWS x1.5 / GK SW X 2/ FW/MF/DF X 1

We suggest that you always add 1K to your bids

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

as an example a DIV ONE 20/12 PS MF/A/D STAR would require a wage offer of basic wage (81K) X 3 to accept unconditionally , i.e. 243K per week or a 20-10 DIV THREE S DF/A would require a wage offer of basic wage(20K) X 3, i.e. 60K

On the last week of the contract there is no optimum length of contract though we suggest you opt for four weeks so you have time to bid again

I REPEAT - AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

One last change to note as well. In future at whatever stage of the contract negotiation you are at with a player, the min he will now accept is one third of his basic wage

· so in the MF/A/D example a bid under 27K will be rejected, the DF/A minimum is 6.66K
