

Well I'll be darned!?!

Game of the week

EASTWOOD FOREST

GILLESPIE ROAD

At last! Like when Friday comes and you have your first beer, or the rain stops and the sun comes out on a spring day, or even when that laxative finally kicks in and you sit on the throne in complete relief, finally, finally! Eastwood have come good!

Extreme measures were put into place by the board, with overseas consultant Bruticia Hugmificant being brought in to support the manager with training, tactics, and general man cuddling management. Insiders reported strange practices used including a weekend retreat in the woods, with beer and Vaseline being incorporated into training sessions, and all night beer consumption?!

But it worked as Manager Jensen the junior worked his new found magic, and the squad responded. After an expected win against Underground, Eastwood welcomed the transitory Gillespie and their one eyed monster manager. Gillespie had been tipped for great things this season, but a change in management was always going to cause initial ripples in the form. Both teams played sweepers and big midfields, with the only missing player being Baddadio who needed to attend a child's birthday (so he said!?).

Form suggested that this would be close, as both teams had dominant midfields, but after a cagey first ten minutes, instructions came from the bench for the Eastwood team to let loose, and let loose they did! 12 first half shots indicated intent, but ability to score was still an issue for the home team.

The second half was even harder on the Eastwood manager, as 4 shots in the first 5 minutes were all saved by Gomezziosi, and as time ticked by it looked like another frustrating session for the Gunmen.

Finally Coy sprang like a Danish brother with an air rifle, and banged in a 10 yarder that would not be denied! Glory be, the heavens have answered, and KA's own Adonis had been crowned!!!

Well? up to a lofty fourth place at least!

On the up

Obviously Eastwood, who move up 4 places, and finally show their true class. Elsewhere Ugle have a great session, moving up in to second and now only a point behind Comp. They are still officially unmanaged according to the stat file, and it would be ironic if an unmanaged team was the one to de-throne mighty Mansell.

Gessel have a bit of a redemption session getting the better of Chintz in the double header, and making Mr Reid a happier man, and Rushen give themselves a great chance with a win and a very commendable draw away to Celtic Nevada

Lack of Acumen?

With Underground and Peters Town gone, the vultures are looking elsewhere for their pound of flesh. Kings Town continue to struggle and Mr Wright will want his injured players back as soon as possible. Gillespie also struggled this session suggesting that their new manager needs to keep that new eye on both the future and this season.

Financial matters

In the transfer market the big stir was such a young star in Tom Moore moving to the third division!? And for a relatively cheap price?? Does Bruticia have something on the Blind Rabbi? Is the Blind Rabbi a hostage in shedville, and this was the ransom?

In the auction Comp again come good with an excellent buy in Oren. Given the cash many other teams have, it is a surprise that Mansell got the injured youngster for such a low price? Goldhawk goes cheap to the gold coast as Lozza plans for the future, and Jurrell will do well in Kiwi land.

Up next

Another double session. Celtic have a tough one playing a resurgent Eastwood, and then Comp, which will more than likely define their season. Ugle have two away games that are winnable, so potentially could go top. Rushen and Kings Town have tough matches, while Gillespie have two games that they should win, which would pull them away from trouble.

Jensen double session?

Game of the week

CWMPALIS JEWELS

2 : 0 MEGA-BYTE CITY

Nobody had a perfect session in the second division, but Manager Jensen the senior, mentor and eternal role model to the Eastwood manager, had something close. When he took over them management of this old and once great club he stated that his aim was to return them to their former glory.

When he stated this he did not know the full extent of the task ahead of him, and the season has been a very tough one.

So the visit of top of the table Mega Byte and their Luton luddite manager was a forgone conclusion? or was it?

Mega Byte were without 3 first team players, so Sutton played diamond in the hope of ruling the midfield and creating chances. This they did, as their 5 men easily outplayed the 4 of Cwmpalis, but Jensen the elder had plans for this, telling his team to hoof the ball to the front three.

KICKABOUT NEWS

Two quick first half goals sealed the game, with the away team offering little in their fight back.

The result probably does more damage to Sutton and Mega Byte than it helps Cwmpalis, as it would take a miracle the manager may not want to stay up, but a good day for all in Vippered!

On the up

Real had a great session seeing off the threat of Millwall, and they managed to scrape a draw with Cwmpalis (?!). The Publicans also do well with 4 points and return to the top of the tree (and maybe stop that fading?). Tallin have a great session winning their double header, and Gee Force push away from Bush, and then stifle Mega Byte? happy days all round for McCrudden

Lack of Acumen?

Mega Byte, having previously gone top, make a complete balls of the session, only getting 1 point and dropping to fourth. Koningswulf have a bad session, but given their injury list they can definitely be forgiven. Neptune continue to sink like a stone, and manager Napier must be beginning to be worried? His saving grace will be that Bush had an even worse session, with the number one Dane looking doomed.

Financial matters

The move of Zedal to Thesps was a bank managers request to Seamus, as the team needed to sort their finances. Probably better business for the fourth division high fliers, but does give Seamus something to build with. Millwall gain two good buys, and The Publicans one, which shows others what acumen late season buys can be

Up next

Top of the division The Publicans have a really difficult session, visiting both Millwall and Real. Two wins would give them almost certain promotion? Millwall and Mega Byte also clash, so things may be a little clearer (or murkier). Neither Bush nor Neptune have easy games, whilst Cwmpalis could get their second win?

Fairy dust from Shedville

Game of the week

SAO PAULO 2 : 1

SPORTING AC

Two new managers of their teams for this season, and both doing great things with their new charges, but it has to be said that one is doing best? hail Bruticia in all her hairy feral beauty!

At the start of this match both teams hovered at opposite ends of the table. Sporting had come on leaps, bounds, and coughs with Chris B, and were challenging for a promotion he was not totally sure would be wise. Sao Paulo, once a top flight team with potential and a previous larger than life manager, have sunk like a stone, with division 4 beckoning? until the Llandudno express arrived and said no more pies until you win!

Derbies are always vicious affairs, and both teams were wound up to boiling. The managers played contrasting styles, with Sporting looking to keep the game tight, whilst Sao Paulo metaphorically took their shirts off and screamed hug me baby, with a 4 2 4 style.

The result, a cracking affair with shots galore, bookings galore, and a glorious free kick to win the game!

The following week was an even more exciting affair, with both teams going all out and creating 41 shots between them, and a cracking 4-4 draw. Manager Ballantyne expressed frustration at his team giving up the lead so late in the game, but said he would share notes and a jug of Bucky with his fellow manager as both look to finish their seasons on an up.

Sporting will live to fight another day, and with the two teams above them having variable for, they could still make the grade. For Sao Paulo fans, the rollercoaster has begun, and the only way is up (via a brewery).

Buckfast and pies all round!

On the up

You really cannot see Southend losing a game this season, which would an amazing achievement I believe only matched by their manager when he was at Gillespie? Padraicins also roll on, and are likely to finish in second place.

Great session for Ipswich as they pick up 4 points and leap frog Croydon in to 3rd place. Ipswich are the form team after the first two, and have now gone from relegation to promotion challengers. Deeping also have a good session to pull themselves away from the relegation battle.

Lack of Acumen?

As above Sporting lost some ground on the promotion spots, as did Croydon who have finished their honeymoon with their manager!? J-Rebel had a bad session, and if they are not careful they will get dragged into the relegation battle, especially with Portsmouth's ability to pick up late season points. Ashburton are gone.

Financial matters

Sir Tom Moore to Sao Paulo is a big statement from the board as they support the manager and plan for next season? Moore alone will likely keep the team up! The board will need to find some cash to appease the bank though.

Stopwarz is a weird buy for Croydon who already have an older midfield specialist, but at that price he's a bargain.

Up next

Ipswich have slightly easier games next session which suggests they could pull further away from the chasing two. Ipswich do have to play Croydon before the end of the season, and Sporting also play Croydon, so there are likely to be twists and turns before the final curtain.

Lawton positivity

Game of the week

INTER ANNEALING

Q.P.R.

There were some good games in the basement this session, including Boundary walloping Preston, and Thesps leapfrogging the top two, but this was probably the top class game.

Both teams have been flying high, Inter Annealing and Lawton as expected, and QPR under the guiding hand of KA multibillionairePresland.

QPR sat prettily on top of the pile, and it was not a surprise that KP played a five man midfield, with the aim to protect the back three and an out of form Portiere in goal. Lawton, being at home, and without the significant skills of Lubi-Loub, decided to roll the dice with a 4 man attack. A close game ensued, one for the purist, with the away team creating only one shot (and goal), and the home team struggling to break them down. It looked like a draw until in the 87th minute a cucumber was thrown from the crowd by a middle aged gentleman. This distracted the away teams goalie, and Lechsonian took full advantage and scored a late winner.

KICKABOUT NEWS

A point gained on QPR, but with Thesps passing both, young Lawton still has some work to do to win what should be his division title.

On the up

The top 3 all picked up points, as did Pandemic in 4th to hang on to their coat tails. Boundary park had an excellent session winning both games and gaining useful SPs. Look out for Bad Dad next season!

Lack of Acumen?

Gehanna and Wall Street both have bad sessions and both desperately need managers

Financial matters

Zedal to Thesps will give the leaders even more incentive to win the division, and Shazzamaz will mean they are a class team, but they will need some cash quick to sort their overdraft.

Rozenthal is a bargain buy for Inter, and will be another great asset for next season in the 3rd division.

Up next

QPR and Thesps meet next session, which may give Inter an opportunity to close the gap. Inter and Thesps then play the following session, all of which may give Pandemic a sniff of entering the race

BOWLING ALONG

REPLAY HIGHLIGHTS

Vintage and Koningswulf reconvened after the 2nd division team held them at home. Mr McAuley made no mistakes second time around taking advantage of several missing players. There were no complaints from the Norwegian as the Kiwi won with two early goals and a shut out.

LEAGUE CUP SEMI-FINALS

Almost worked

RESULT: COMP CITY 1 : 0 VINTAGE CLARETS

Tough old draw for Mr McAuley as he goes from a bowl replay, to a semi final against the best team in the league.

Vintage do not have the fire power to compete with Comp, and the manager went for a defensive set up with a sweeper, the aim being to hold the champs in the away game, and hope for a sneaky goal in the home match. As always though Comp got their lucky goal, and as a result win the game. It's not over, as one goal may not be enough, but the worry will be if Simon goes for it and tries to win, and Comp catch them on the break.

Ugle hold Ugly

RESULT: UGLE BETIS 0 : 0 CELTIC NEVADA

Second vs third for the chance to potentially play first? not the most romantic cup forecast. This though was a great derby game, with chances for both teams, off sides being broken, marking not fully working, and all the aggression of Viking denied his Carlsberg!?

Both had 5 man midfields, though the use of forwards was considerably different. As a result there were shots from both teams, and both goalies played excellently.

The second leg will be intriguing, with master tactician Ashcroft trying to work out who is managing Ugle, and how can he access their hard drive?

SESSIONS	MIN LEVEL
1 to 3	5
4 to 5	6
6 to 8	7
9 to 10	8
11+	9

These are also the same levels which decide whether a player will go straight to N/L when out of contract rather than being put into the auction

Please note that from now onwards it is illegal to sell any player and then buy him back in the next three session FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER. If you do that player will be banned for life and you will lose him

MARKING

From now onwards if you use last season's marking numbers then you will be found out AND if guilty the result of the game will either be reversed or decided against you.

t

MARKING INFO - Tim Dodge has put together a clever little program that allowss shomatch subscribers to gather all the international squads together each session so that you can use that info to get marking info. Shomatch/teampick subscribers get a file sent out a file with all the int squads listed and this program pulls them all together. Makes it easier than ploughing through back newsletters, etc

The latest version now available at

PLEASE NOTE THAT UNLESS YOU SUBSCRIBE
TO TEAMPICK/SHOMATCH THEN YOUR TEAMSHEETS WILL ALWAYS BE SENT OUT BY

For others you do the same except put the league, name with Ka- in front of +subscribe.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY TO REMEMBER

It seems that even old stagers of the game still can't work out what order games are to be played in. SO emblazon the following on your minds please

ORDER OF MATCHES IS

LEAGUE GAME ONE

LEAGUE GAME TWO (which is where any re-arranged league maxcth should go)

ALL CUP GAMES (including Cup/Bowl/ Trophy where the latter is always last if you have a Bowl or cup game as well)

LEAGUE CUP GAMES

EURO GAMES

FRIENDLIES

(If you look at teampick you will see that you CAN edit your fixtures as well to tell the program what games you are playing this session and it will put them in the correct order, OK)

NB In teampick trophy games come after League Cup it appears. Please realise that they don't. In the fullness of time the teampick maestro will change this

MUTTERINGS AND MEANDERINGS OF THE KA MIND

Just something to remember this time. Which is oft times not realised by managers. If you set a DF/A to mark a WG then he will follow him all over the pitch whether he plays in MF or FW line and mark him. WG cannot hide from a DF/A marking him

MONEY

STANDING ORDER PAYMENTS - you can also pay your turn fees by standing order now. Contact us for details about how to do this and remember that this is not only the way to spread your payments over the year rather than having to find a lump sum at the start of every season, but it is also the way to avoid those dreaded double turn fees. With SO payments this can't happen.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS Can be made to us using the PAYPAL service. So if you want to pay anything by credit card then you could register with them and give it a try. Also note that if you send your payments as a gift ALL of the cash reaches us without any paypal fees being charged at our end and all is credited to your account. You can use either email address for this

BULK PAYMENT OF TURN FEES - remember if you pay £63.75 at one time (which can cover more than one team) you get an extra free turn credited to your account. This offer does not include shomatch/weekend/fast leagues/veterans leagues or special offers monies!

THE INTERNATIONAL TROPHY

There will be two groups of six teams each playing the other once (remember an extra point for an away performance), There will then be a KO semi-final, for all positions and a final session of six games to decided the twelve placings

First the prizes,

WINNER - 500K

RUNNER-UP - 200K

BEATEN SEMI-FINALISTS - 150K each

Beating any HIGHER RANKED team earns your club balance 100K

Winning any game (though not on penalties) gains you an extra 1 MP for your club side

The international scene can be therefore quite lucrative for your club side and with the arrival of your free SUPER SCOUT on Session two this becomes even more lucrative as well. However remember that if you fail to put in any orders he will DISSAPPEAR and you can only get him back by submitting a set of orders next time, and asking fro him back, when he will re-appear at the end of that session you submitted the orders.

FIXTURE SCHEDULE

PLEASE NOTE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

There is a reporting error in international squad turnsheets that CAN occur at times on s2/3/54 of international games. There is very little way around this to be honest. So if it appears that the wrong player has played or marked please bear this in mind. We are happy in these circumstance to end you a printout of what actually happened not what the printout program says happened!!

LONDON BEER MILE - SATURDAY 6th JULY

Boys, we have arranged that Saturday July 6th will be a London Beermile Day for Kickabouters. We will traverse the 'famous' London Beermile (not far London Bridge station). Put it in your diaries for an afternoon of ales, food and chat. We would love to see old and new faces. Ex players Ian Jackson (aka Mick Hucknall) and Nigel Barnish (Trespint Bernie) are already confirmed as coming along and there are one or two more ex-players in the pipeline (watch this space); along with the current crop of Chris, Wadders, Baddad, Cranners, Gareth, Nursey Lewis, Steadders to name just a few as a starter.

We also here that Neil H & Collywobble are planning to descend on London for a binge! While Rob The Scottie has promised to show his face (What about you Mr Butler?!)

KICKABOUT

TEAMS

MANAGERS NEEDED

WHAT AN OFFER

Over the next three months we will be offering some unmanaged teams for you to take over and run. We expect you to keep running them at least until the end of the season and to pay for them, but here's the honeypot to make it tasty. When you take over a team you will get a ticket in a draw for a lifetime membership for one of your teams (your choice) if you are the lucky winner.

Draw will be made at the beginning of July

So time to get in there and takeover a new team

FIRST TEAMS UP FOR GRABS

QUICK LEAGUE

You could plump for Lady Park in the Messi fast turnaround league. Mid-table third division.

TOUGH LEAGUE

Or get a big kiss from John by taking on rock bottom Desert Isle Utd in the Veterans, just started a new season here. A real big challenge

CONTRACTS UPDATE

We have listened to the moaners who in contract negotiations have lost very good players cos they cannot get them to agree to a new contract. Galling to see their prized possession in the expired section of the autumn. Ok you will no doubt get some recompense for him, but the reserve bid is always painfully low and you never never know who might snaffle his arse with a cheeky bid do you.

So from now onwards if your prized player is on the last week of his contract

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

Then there is a wage that if offered he will ALWAYS accept.

This has to be calculated by you (Oh shite!!)

The formula is as follows :

3 X basic wage where the basic wage = player level X PS Bonus X Div Bonus X POS Bonus X Type bonus player level is obvious

P/S bonus increase the basic wage by 20%

Div Bonus - 125% for div 1/ 110% for div2 / 100% for divs 3/ 75% for div 4

Pos bonus refers to STARS/FUT/SBY which require 50% uplift

Type bonus is equal to the players expected wage rates , ie MF/A/D x3 - Df/A X 2 /
UT/WG/FWS x1.5 / GK SW X 2/ FW/MF/DF X 1

We suggest that you always add 1K to your bids

AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

as an example a DIV ONE 20/12 PS MF/A/D STAR would require a wage offer of basic wage (81K) X 3 to accept unconditionally , i.e. 243K per week or a 20-10 DIV THREE S DF/A would require a wage offer of basic wage(20K) X 3, i.e. 60K

On the last week of the contract there is no optimum length of contract though we suggest you opt for four weeks so you have time to bid again

I REPEAT - AND THIS ONLY RELATES TO THE LAST WEEK OF HIS CONTRACT PLEASE NOTE

One last change to note as well. In future at whatever stage of the contract negotiation you are at with a player, the min he will now accept is one third of his basic wage

· so in the MF/A/D example a bid under 27K will be rejected, the DF/A minimum is 6.66K

CREATIVE/ BALL-WINNER

HOW DOES IT WORK?

SO WHAT DO THE NUMBERS MEAN?

The new statistics are aimed at a simple game mechanic - they are used to give a side additional chances of scoring during a game or they are used to nullify efforts created by the opposition; it doesn't take a genius to work out which does which.

The individual statistics of each player are only the "base value" for each formulae that uses them. The figures shown are modified by any number of different conditions before they are given a final rating, which is used to determine if he directly effects the match in any way. The kind of players he is playing with, the number of players in his part of the pitch, the weather and the team's formation are all mitigating factors in how this base value is modified.

Ball Winners are players that thrive in the heat of battle, that love to mix it with the opposition and find their talents easier to use when in packed areas of the pitch. They are primarily defensive players and tend to have more effect if the overall stance of the side is weighted in that direction. For each element of this make up that goes their way, they receive a bonus on their ball-winning ability, along with a subsequent penalty to their creative skill. So, if the Batty of our example starts the game with figures of 75/25 then he will be completely happy playing in a full Power side, with a 4-4-2 formation that uses a negative style. If the weather is cold and the pitch muddy then he has about everything he can get in his favour. The only way of bettering this if for him to be playing in a five-man midfield, but then you lose the negative advantage and his figures won't look all that much better. Each one of the factors in his advantage will add a certain percentage to his abilities and in the example shown it would not be a surprise to see Batty's eventual stats change from 75/25 through to perhaps 105/10 or so.

Creative players like the opposite end of the scale, as you can imagine, and they like warm days with a good surface to play one, they like space to play in and a style that allows them to attack the opposing goalmouth. It doesn't take too much to work out what sort of formations and playing positions will get the best from them.

It may well become apparently that there are more opportunities in the game for ball winners than there are for creative players - this is a fact.

The balance to this is that when a BW or CR affect kicks in, it only kicks in at the position the player is located. A BW gain by a player in midfield will kill off a shot from the opposing midfield area for example, while a striker picking up a creative chance will do so from his forward position. The creative chances always result in an additional chance where as ball-winners need to have something to stop if they are to be effective. If a side adds an extra four Ball-winner stops to their midfield and the opposition isn't creating anything in that area, then these efforts are wasted. Thus, while there are many more ways of aiding your ball-winning players, their abilities are not always as valuable as the creative players
