EMAIL CHAT LIST - yes, you can subscribe to our email discussion group. There is a list for general Kickabout topics, a list for each individual league, one for the vulcano, one for teampick subscribers, even one for the weekend players. Learn more about the game, talk to other players and the Gm. To subscribe to the main list send a blank email to Kickabout-subscribe@yahoo.co.uk. For others you do the same except put the league, name with Ka- in front of subscribe. However, some league lists have an ending in .co.uk instead of .com, so if one doesn't work then please try the other!!

One thing to note about subscribing to the list, we post a regular schedule of where every league is in the processing schedule, when it is sent out, when the latest return-by-date is. This is of great help and if you have email you should really be receiving this.

The Pundit Has His Opinion

Watch out for the magic man, King Rob, as his rise from the third ends with his arrival in the top flight and the cup on his sideboard as well as the division two title with some ease. I see no reason why the Test cannot challenge at the very top of the first this season. However I think they are going to face a strong challenge from Globe Trotters this time out. The usual suspects are probably not going to get a look in this season, more rebuilding needed me thinks, However, if anybody is going to challenge to take Adrian's title (not at the races I'm afraid Adie unless you splash the Scottish cash), then could be City Colts, on the way back where they think they belong! Not much to choose between the rest to be honest though looks as if the Warriors will be unable to hang on this season, downward momentum I think.

Both the Spuds & Bermondsey could be having good seasons in the second but they are going to have to pad out their squads before this happens I feel therefore have to plump for Wessex & Hoth Wampas to lead the way - though not with much confidence. Both relegated Les Ferdinand & Viperoed look likely to continue their downwards journey, though I feel both managers are happy with this. The latter have plenty of cash to spread around, though feel it might be the following season before Jens loosens the purse strings.

Division three is basically a plethora of like-minded teams. I.e., how can we steal an advantage when we aren't that good to dominate the division. Best of the lot might be Dal Raida, with Barnby park, if they can win rather than draw games, perhaps nearest challengers, but really nothing special here at start of season. At the bottom, well The Levellers have hit rock bottom, can Davo repeat his Stars ascent and rebuild them. IB 2301 have also got to the bottom of the pile, but manager Pad has cash to spend so they could be a team to watch. Sysiden are a young side so something here for Laurits to build upon. But really little to choose between about ten teams or so. Acumen chaps, use that acumen
